

HUC Officers Meeting Minutes

11/10/2009

Attendees

David Brooks, Austine Lin, Asif Mohammed, Eric Strom, Melvin Wang

- Winter League
 - 8 or 9 people that want to sign up for the draft
 - captains need to talk to teams more
 - supplement weaker teams with people from supplemental draft

- CIS/TIP
 - both are losing money
 - if we limit teams to 24, then we are losing money
 - banking on getting subs to cover expenses
 - first cycle is harder, but tends to even out near the end of the cycle
 - TIP had 32 first night, 12 2nd, 15-20 for 3rd but for the pull party
 - could raise fee to $7
 - possibly it's the timing or location
 - can advertise to a broader audience, WL or penultimates
 - do we want to keep doing it?
 - have it reserved for two more weeks
 - it's a burden to run along with cis esp if we are losing money
 - if we can't generate more interest, then maybe we will just
 - have to build an interest to create the community
 - we don't seem to have that for indoor
 - does huc want to keep promoting TIP if it's not making money?
 - having trouble filling CIS too
 - people are not going to play both CIS and TIP
 - price is an issue with CIS
 - sean's suggestion: offer certain people a cheaper price
 - trying to fill signups on cycle by cycle basis
 - let's see how the two more weeks pan out
 - ACTION: asif to find out when we need to renew facility for TIP
 - eric: switch CIS venue
 - new facility not really liked by some people
 - let's see how the two more weeks pan out
 - think about using new listserv for TIP
 - people are finding the listserv via the website
 - possibly raise the rates

- finances
 - collected about $7000 for WL payments
 - %75 came through paypal
 - about $1000 needed to collect... 50% didn't show up on the first week
 - things were really organized for the line
 - payments for shirts, 2k to eric
 - magnets... tempted to pull out of budget
 - marketing device
 - budget
 - keeping track of shirts taht were handed out
 - huc store online?
 - ~14k in paypal and ~9k in bank account

- Indoor Tourney
 - should make money on it

- keep it at kicks
 - ACTION: melvin to see what is available in mid feb
